DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION

Office of the Secretary

49 CFR Part 1

108T Docket No. 1, 108T-1-108T

Organization and Delegation of Powers and Duties

AGENCY: Department of Transportation (DOT), Office of the Secretary.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: This amendment delegates to the Assistant Secretary for Policy and International Affairs, the Deputy General Counsel and the Federal Aviation Administrator certain authorities resulting from amendment of section 1115 of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958, as amended, and related provisions which were enacted as a part of the "International Security and Development Cooperation Act of 1985" to improve foreign airport security. This amendment also makes a technical correction to the existing delegation concerning aviation safety to the FAA Administrator.

EFFECTIVE DATE: June 9, 1986.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Becky L. Bentson, Office of the General Counsel, Department of Transportation, Washington, DC., (202) 412-5517.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Since this amendment relates to Department management, procedures, and practice, notice and comment on it are unnecessary, and it may be made effective in fewer than thirty days after publication in the Federal Register.

The Secretary's powers and duties to assure the security of foreign airports under section 1115 of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958, as amended (49 U.S.C. App. 1515), (the FAAct), were recently expanded (and supplemented with related new responsibilities) as a part of the recently enacted "International Security and Development Cooperation Act of 1985." (See Part B of title V, entitled "Foreign Airport Security.") The Secretary has determined that implementation of the expanded section 1115 and the related provisions will require complex and well coordinated interaction of several DOT offices and other executive departments, and that delegation of these responsibilities is therefore needed.

In an unrelated matter, this amendment also updates the delegation of important aviation safety powers and duties to the Federal Aviation Administrator, simply to conform to rewording of the statutory language on which the delegation has been patterned. This rewording occurred in 1983, when Congress enacted into positive law as 49 U.S.C. 106(g)(1) language which had formerly appeared as a proviso to the first sentence of section 6(c)(1) of the Department of Transportation Act (49 U.S.C. 1655(c)(1)).
